CARROT TOP
By
R. Robert Evans

With Bob Green of the Edison Company enjoying himself on his last days of a fishing vacation, and Don Jackson having left for three weeks in Montana on a hunting trip, I decided to call on Charley Over, who had just returned from 30 days of fishing and relaxing.

Seems that Charley and his wife had a bit of hard luck... the first day out it seems that Charley dressed in pajamas, to keep him warm, hooked on to a dilly, but being out near the mouth of the river, and in the vicinity of other sportsmen, his fish got tangled in the propeller... so laying the pole down in the bottom of the boat, Charley proceeded to get back into calmer waters.

Now a 40-horse motor doesn't hesitate in taking out, and Charley was making good headway when all of a sudden he looked around to see his rod and reel taking off for parts unknown with a survived salmon on the other end. After two hours trying to locate his $80.00 (retail) equipment he gave up, and went back to camp to locate another.

Later Charley and his wife persuaded friends to take their boat and go to another location... now Charley's wife, Amy, always takes care of the boat when Charley hooks into a big one... you know, jacking back a little or forward, as hubby Chuck gives directions.

Well he hooked on to another big one... and about this time he started talking to the fish... come on baby, let's go... come to papa... and all that kinda stuff... wife Amy thought he was giving her the signals and she reached over and threw the 40-horse motor into red, and full speed.

Over went Chuck, lucky he had a heavy life belt on, as he hit the seat and came out of it with a broken floating rib... wife Amy was upended with her feet in the air...

At this point things were not too clear to me, but seems that the friends got too close and their lines got tangled up in Chuck's lines and anyway the whole thing ended up by their boat plowing head-on into Chuck's boat, breaking the windshield, and smashing up this and that.

Of course another rod and reel went down the drain and is probably on display at the bottom of the river as a warning to little fishes of the sea.

Giving up for the day, Charley discovered that it was Friday the 13th... personally I don't think this had a thing to do with the unusual run of luck... I think it was the pajamas that Chuck wore out to catch those fish... salmon are smart buggers you know... anyway Chuck and Amy had the time of their lives, and after being home but a week they are trying to talk Chuck's brother, Albert into... ## Color or Portables; A Good Choice Rambeau TV Now Features Tops in Television Sets

If you have ever had an idea of buying a second television set, or if you do not now have one, and have been toying with the idea of getting one for the family, or thirdly if you have been hearing all about color television, and you want to give yourself and family a first-class treat for many months to come, then... now is the time to make a trip down to Ed Rambeau's Television and Antenna Service and he will have the set that will take care of all of your desires.

Publishers Assn. Commended by LA County Board

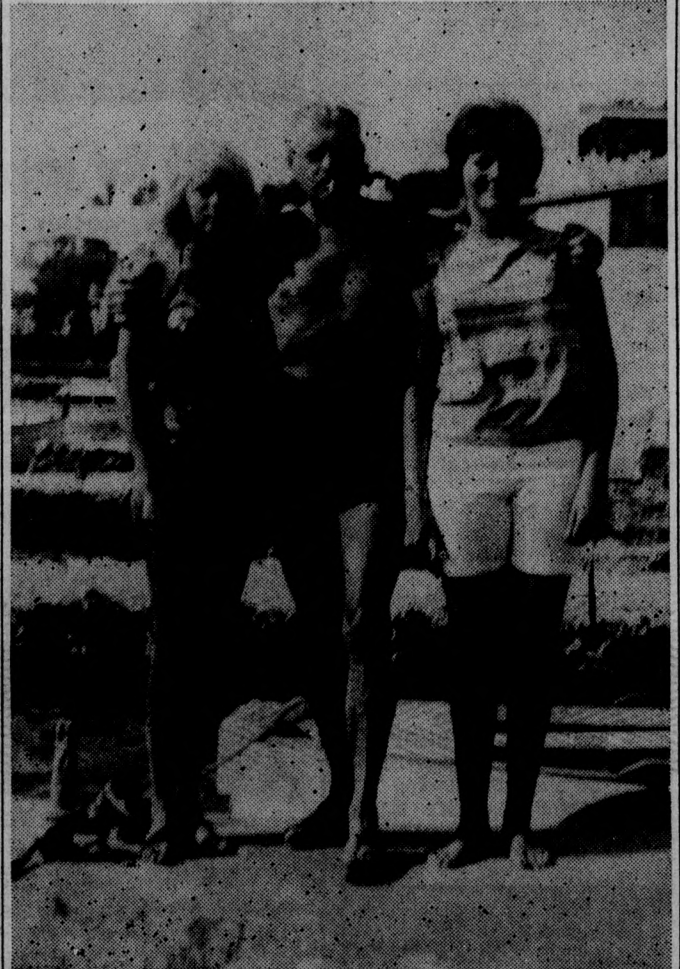

The California Newspaper Publishers Association has been commended by the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors for its outstanding service to the people of the nation's largest state during the annual observance of National Newspaper Week and on the occasion of the 76th anniversary of the CNPA.

Warren M. Dorn, chairman of the board, presented a scroll of achievement and thanks Thursday to Harry Green, general manager of the John P. Scripps Newspapers and 1963 CNPA president, in special ceremonies in the County Hall of Administration.

In honoring the publishers' group, Supervisor Dorn took special note of the "outstanding support given in the crusade against the illegal use of narcotics and in publicizing of the booklet, 'Darkness on Your Doorstep'."

For color, Zenith is the outstanding set, states Mr. Rambeau, and the prices that they are featuring on these sets is the lowest in all of Southern California. The fall, winter and spring months are now logging some 14 to 20 hours of color daily, and for complete enjoyment of television, color is the answer. These sets are also ideal for black and white programs of other channels.

Mr. Rambeau will be tickled pink to zero one of these sets into your home to your complete satisfaction on reception. Having sold over one hundred sets in the past two months, Mr. Rambeau states that his prices are the lowest. So, now is the time to select your set—you will be happy you did.

ENJOYING A SIX month vacation in a Mediterranean paradise are Mr. and Mrs. Pierra-Frederic Touchon, formerly of 750 Alta Vista Dr., Sierra Madre. Also having joined the party is Miss Jill Lindkens of 409 W. Grand View Ave., who arrived in Cala D'Or accompanied by her cousin, Miss Simone Thompson of Pasadena. Cala D'Or is located 50 miles from the capital of Palma and is fast becoming a fashionable resort. The Touchons report of the lovely climate, sparkling sea and beautiful scenery in addition to a wide variety of entertainment.

Parking Time On All City Lots Reduced To 3 Hours

With the City Council being pushed with a heavy agenda, it met in regular session Tuesday evening with all Councilmen and Mayor present, Attorney Martin absent and City Clerk Warfel in attendance.

Warrants in the amount of $39,519, and transfer of funds in the amount of some $64,325 were ordered paid and transferred.

The hearing for the demolition of substandard structures on the McCavitt property was delayed until December 24 meeting, due to estate settlement problems. And since the M. J. Schaefer demolition has already taken out a permit, their time was also extended to this date.

Rezoning Denied
The hearing on the rezoning of from R-1 to R-3 of various properties on Hermosa and Highland was given considerable time and discussion. It was the recommendation of the Planning Commission that these properties be rezoned with conditions of widening the alley, and the construction of a new alley for lots 16 through 20.

It was the opinion of the Council that this "package deal" contained too many problems, creating unfair advantages for some properties, and therefore by a vote of 2 to 3 denied the Planning Commission's recommendation, and issued authorization to the City Attorney to bring in an Ordinance rezoning the Thompson property only from R-1 to R-3 with no conditions. The Thompson property is to be sold for the building of apartment houses.

LUZ GUZMAN who recently made news in many of the local papers as a patient guest at the Maryknoll Hospital in Monrovia, was radiant as she received her first Holy Communion in the Sisters' Chapel. The nurses and friends of the sisters vied with each other in outfitting the little girl and a list was drawn up to make sure each had a share in Luz' outfit.

Robert Tarr Killed In Kingman, Ariz. Gun Battle

The Sheriff, gunman killing each other in Western-style duel at Kingman, Arizona Monday in a daylight gun fight, brought home to Sierra Madreans the death of one of their former residents.

Sheriff Robert L. Tarr, father of nine children, was raised in Sierra Madre, attending the local schools and Pasadena schools. He is the youngest son of Mrs. Helen T. Tarr of 274 W. Montecito, and his older brother is Donald T. Tarr of 102 N. Hermosa.

Robert had been Sheriff of Mohave County less than a year. He had been called to the inspection center four miles north of Kingman on U.S. Highway 93 to investigate a car listed as stolen from Long Beach, Calif.

Tie Vote on British Home

Planning Commission Cracks Down on Easy Variances

The Sierra Madre Planning Commission met in regular session Thursday night, Oct. 17, and cracked down on "easy-to-get" Variances, as the City Attorney, Charles Martin pointed out to the audience and the Commissioners, the laws of the city are made for the betterment of the city, protection of the citizens, and when someone applies for a change in the laws they should prove and establish why in this particular case, the rules should be broken or bent for their purpose.

The agenda was loaded with Variances and, of course, this plays havoc with the planning and zoning of a city, since codes, setbacks and requirements already have been set up to improve our city.

Chairman Casey opened the meeting with all Commissioners present with the exception of Commissioner Beaumont. Councilman Parks was present representing the City Council, City Administrator Bevington, City Attorney Martin and Secretary Marie Lesh were in their chairs.

The first item of business was the continuance of Conditional Use Permit of the British Home. This is a home for the aged in a R-1 zone, and previously the British Home had requested a permit to make an addition to the home; some 14 property owners signed a petition against this request. A motion was made to deny the request and meet the new problem of rewriting the section on rest homes allowed in R-3 zones, and include rest homes in Conditional Use Permit. The Commissioners came up with a tie vote. Since no one wanted to change his vote, it will be sent on to the City Council with a split vote.

The Turner rezoning of the property at the corner of Michillinda and Highland, which was held over from the last meeting to give Mr. Turner a chance to attempt to get that property owner's signature on the application, was again brought up, with Mr. Turner requesting another continuance. The property is in escrow to Mr. Turner. Because of the interested persons attending, the request for continuance was denied, the rezoning denied without prejudice until Mr. Turner clears the title; then he can re-apply.

The Williams Variance at 108 Esperanza is a request for a Variance from the driveway code which requires, if 13 or more units are to be used, the driveway should be 18 feet. The Please turn to Page 3

Question: The second reading of an Ordinance for the establishment of a Reserve Police Force was held, what is your opinion of this action?

Carola Hurwit
84 E. Sierra Madre Blvd.

"I think it is a good idea, to have a reserve on hand is always good planning in anything, this also applies to our Police Department."

Archie Crabtree
37 N. Auburn

"I am against this, we have a small town, good residents, and a very capable police force that can handle anything that arises, so why should we have a reserve?"

Lola Bullock
42 Windsor Lane

"A reserve would be good in case of an emergency. I have met the new chief, he is a very conscientious person, our patrolmen are very capable, but they should have a reserve to call on."

Outstanding Library Report

The value of the Sierra Madre Library to its community can easily be seen in the review of its activities and the report to the City Council as made Tuesday evening, Oct. 22. The report was received from Josephine Terry, City Librarian.

One paragraph of this report was very outstanding and read as follows: "Although the number of books cataloged during the past two years has met the minimum standards, one book for each five in population,

Spacious Living Now Available

If you are in the need of renting an apartment, it is suggested that one of the nicer apartments, just newly built, and now available, are the Shalimar Apartments at 484 Mariposa.

These apartments have spacious entry and are located one block south of Sierra Madre Blvd., two blocks east of Michillinda, in a prestige residential area.

These apartments were built by the Huntington Construction Company and are under rentalship of Flamingo Properties, E.L. 5-8045. They still have a 2 bedroom and den suite available, with apartment rentals starting from $145. Better take a look at these lush living quarters immediately, before the "no vacancy" sign is hung.

262 members. We are indeed proud of the work of this organization.

Sierra Madre tops the national average for per capita circulation, it being 9.8, and the national average being 4.16, definitely showing our people make use of the facilities that are provided.

Further in the statistical department, the national census figures of 1960 show that Sierra Madre has eliminated.

Services Held For Arthur Colnon

Funeral services for Arthur B. Colnon, 69, were conducted Tuesday at 11 a.m. in the Little Church of the Flowers, under the direction of Forest Lawn Mortuary.

Born in Watertown, New York, he resided at 935 E. Grand View Ave., Sierra Madre, for the past 16 years. He was a member of the Federal Employees Association "Nalre." He died Friday in a Sierra Madre Convalescent hospital, leaving his wife, Helen; one son, John, Glendale; one step-son, Thomas W. Chick, Dallas, Texas; one daughter, Mrs. Catherine Gabriel, Avon Lake, Ohio. The Rev. J. P. Stockett, Church of the Nazarene, officiated, and interment was in Forest Lawn Memorial Park.

Sierra Madre's Future Rose Queen Registers Nov. 2

That time of year is approaching again when the girls of Sierra Madre gather to help make the most important event of the year possible—Sierra Madre's float to be entered in the Pasadena Tournament of Roses on New Year's Day.

Sierra Madre is one of the few remaining communities to enter a float that has been built and financed strictly by volunteers.

One way in which the float is financed is through the annual sale of roses. Sierra Madre girls qualify to be Sierra Madre's Rose Queen, ride on the float, and participate in the year-round functions of our Rose Queen by selling roses on specified rose sale days. The girl who sells the most roses will receive tickets for the Coronation and the Ball of the 1964 Pasadena Tournament of Roses. Then all girls who participated in the Rose Sale contest are judged by three or more judges to choose the finalist who will reign as Sierra Madre's Rose Queen. The Queen will ride the float on New Year's Day and participate in all of the functions that may arise during her year as Queen.

Any Sierra Madre girl attending high school or junior college, 9th through 12th

California Has Lowest Gas-Electric Rates

Rates of California gas, electric and telephone utilities still are among the lowest in the nation, it was announced today by William M. Bennett, president of the State Public Utilities Commission. He said this was shown by the annual survey made by the Commission of basic monthly charges for service in the nation's 25 largest cities as of last June 30.

The survey shows the total monthly bill based on usage of 50 therms of gas, 150 kilowatt hours of electrical energy and individual line residential telephone service. The 10 per cent federal excise tax on telephone service is not included.

Telephone charges for one-party flat rate residential service were lowest in the three California cities. Los Angeles' basic rate was $4.55 per month, while San Diegans paid $4.90 and San Franciscans $5.05 for the individual residential line. In other cities the charge for the same service ranged up to $7.70.

Voice Classes Receives Good Response At PCC

Voice Classes at PCC, under the new Educational Service Division, headed by Dean L. Herman Smith, have received an enthusiastic response from local singers and promise an interesting year of study.

A beginners' class is held on Monday evening, 7-10, PCC, room K3; an advanced class stressing solo singing on Tuesday evening, 7-10, at Pasadena High School, room 106C.

On Wednesday evening at PCC, in the Choral Room No. 102, on Sierra Bonita St., a class offers brush-up in sight-singing and vocal literature.

A daytime class in voice is held at PCC on Thursday from 12 noon to 3 p.m., in room 1K.

Enrollment in the classrooms with the instructor, Miss Dorothea Pollack.

Membership Picnic Brunch

Mrs. Warden W. Gaskins, membership chairman of the Methodist Hospital, will welcome members at the membership "picnic" brunch and fashion show Tuesday, Oct. 29, at 10:30 a.m. in the lovely gardens and pool area of the Charles Hopping home, 975 Hampton Road.

As last year, professional models will be showing lovely fashions for the holiday season by Wessel's Suburbia of Sierra Madre. Mrs. Frank Tomkins will chair the brunch, assisted by Mrs. Raymond Heet who will be in charge of the food, and Mrs. Hugh Merritt in charge of table decorations. Others working on the committee are Mrs. Theodore Howard and Mrs. Stanley Boss, tickets; Mrs. David Barron, Mrs. Donald Butler, Mrs. Wynne Goling, Mrs. Jack Tallon and Mrs. Robert Gram.

This picnic brunch will honor the 391 active members, 40 associate members and 128 life members of the Arcadia Auxiliary. These women provide the "Plus Service" for the hospital. Professional services are performed only by the hospital staff; the auxiliary volunteer provides the "extra pair of hands" in duties not requiring specialized training.

United Way Urges Sierra Madreans To Respond

This week Sierra Madre residents upon opening their mail, became very much aware that this community is now part of United Way, Inc. The who, what, why, where and when of this great "do-it-together" campaign is explained in a letter that has been mailed to Sierra Madreans by Mrs. Lucy Young, Sierra Madre campaign chairman.

The letter urges residents to give now to United Way for Sierra Madre. All are urged to do so by mailing the enclosed envelope with their donations. For those who give at work, through AID, etc., it is requested that they indicate this on the envelope and also mail it back.

Mailing back envelopes will be of invaluable help to the Sierra Madre campaign. When envelopes are returned the cards of these residents are marked and the volunteer worker will not make a call at this home. As there is a shortage of campaign canvassers, less house calls will be a boon to the volunteers and the resident in turn will not be bothered by someone coming to their door.

At the October board meeting of our Sierra Madre United Way Board final work was begun on the November door-to-door campaign. Areas were assigned to the captains. The kit which will be carried by the volunteers was presented and explained.

Other business transacted at the meeting was the accepting of the resignations of two members of the Sierra Madre Board. Mrs. Gordon MacMillan resigned due to Chief MacMillan's recent retirement and the call of trailer life. A great vote of thanks was given to Mrs. MacMillan for the tremendous work she has done in past campaigns.

Also regrettably accepted by the Board was the resignation of treasurer William Bennett because of other commitments. John Tahl replaces Mr. Bennett as treasurer. Due to an error in printing Mr. Tahl's name is incorrectly spelled with a "z" on the list of the community board members in the letter which residents have just received.

"Once again we appeal to everyone to give attention to this letter and to return your envelope by mail as soon as possible. Give your support to this drive that not only benefits us here in Sierra Madre but steps over the boundaries to provide needs in all of Los Angeles County," recommended the chairman.

There also will be a new evening class starting on Wednesday, Oct. 23, at 7 p.m. Any dog five months or older may be enrolled. For further information, please call Hillcrest 6-6858 or EL-iott 9-1481.

Letters To The Editor . . .

Dear Editor:
The Sierra Madre PTA wishes to express its appreciation to you for your support of the third high school. As parents, we felt the need of this new facility to be great and we pledged our support to the Pasadena Board of Education last May.

Thank you for your interest in this most important election.

Very truly yours,

Planning Commission Cracks Down

apartment in question has 12 units and the required over 10½-foot driveway, but the apartment has a recreation room that Mr. Williams wishes to turn into a bachelor apartment, making him 13 units with a non-conforming driveway. The Variance was denied.

At this point it was made clear to everyone that any decision can be appealed to City Council within ten days.

Next on the agenda was the Paulson Corp. application for a Variance at 111 Suffolk to reduce side yard to five feet on R-3 property which will place the building within ten feet of structures on adjacent lots. A 4-to-1 vote of the Commissioners denied this Variance. The City Attorney made his wishes known that he hopes the applicant appeals this to the City Council, because this is a case where an improvement is denied because of neighbor's problem of having structures within one foot of their property line. The applicant says he will not appeal because of the time element. Instead, he will just reverse his building which will not be as satisfactory as previously planned.

The Kintsel Variance was denied. This was a request for a garage to be constructed at 65 W. Grand View at a 25-foot setback instead of the average of the block, which is 43 feet.

Mr. Lamdin applied for a Variance to a new existing wall of his house at 3½-foot setback instead of the required 5 feet. His request was granted. He is improving his house and it seemed impractical to require an extension made to the house with a non-conforming setback.

A Variance was granted to Dr. Hammerschmidt at 662 Skyland Drive for a carport at 25-foot setback.

A confused situation at 546 and 548 Sturtevant

Drive came before the Planning Commission. Mr. Stewart owns three lots (322, 323, 324) with structures built on them, overlapping, which they really one lot. Nevertheless, without knowing this, lot 322 was sold, then resold. Mr. Stewart would like to divide these lots so as to retain the three lots. To complicate things further, this falls under the Hillside Ordinance which requires lots to have 15,000 square feet. It would take all three of Mr. Stewart's lots to meet this requirement.

To correct this problem and to protect the innocent buyer of the one lot, the Commissioners recommended that Mr. Stewart reapply for a consolidation of the three parcels of land, then ask for a Variance from the Hillside Ordinance for a lot split. This would rectify a bad situation and give the innocent party, Mrs. Murphy, a saleable parcel of land.

It was moved and seconded that a Variance be granted at 33 W. Mira Monte for a reduction in the front yard setback.

Under new business, the revised tentative map for tract 27459 (Nuetzel), adding one more lot, due to relocating a street, was presented to the Commissioners. It was accepted with the stipulation that the new lot meet all requirements set forth for the other lots in the tract.

A hearing was set for the regular meeting of the Planning Commission in November for the controls and ordinances of rest homes, and it was decided that the Planning Commission would request the City Council to set a date for the joint meeting between the two.

The hour being late, all other business on the agenda was held over until the next regular meeting which will be Nov. 21 in the Council Chambers. The public is invited to attend.

Blue Birds Have

Blue Birds from the Sierra Madre School had their Fly-up ceremonies Thursday, Oct. 17, at the Congregational Church.

This group of Blue Birds, originated last year under the leadership of Nita Jordan, Vi Ross and Anna Bly Couchman, consisted of 20 little girls, and it is interesting to note that the same group is together this year with the exception of one drop-out because she moved out of town.

June Nelissen officiated at the Fly-up ceremonies. The Blue Birds sang some of their Blue Bird songs, then removing their Blue Bird vests, tying on their Camp Fire Girls ties, and repeating the Camp Fire Law, became full fledged Camp Fire Girls and received their Emblem and Certificate.

Their 'Fly Up'

Mrs. Nelissen then gave a very inspiring talk to the girls, telling them of the joys of being a Camp Fire Girl and also of their duty to be good citizens, neighbors and friends.

Refreshments were then served to the new Camp Fire Girls. The group included in the Fly-up ceremonies were: Bonnie Beavers, Libby Brett, Connie Cadwell, Gail Carpenter, Debra Cohen, Carol Couchman, Jean Hackbarth, Robyn Jordan, Bonnie Koyamatsu, Karen Link, Mary Lounsbury, Laurie Nelissen, Jamie McCoy, Ellen Miller, Robyn Olt, Cindy Samerjam, Karen Voyster and Marsha Mavredakis.

The Guardians for this group of Camp Fire Girls will be June Nelissen, Charlotte Olt and Thelma Koyamatsu.

Nurses, Specialists For Air Force Badly Needed

Applications for commissioning in the U.S. Air Force Medical Service are now being sought from nurses and medical specialists, it was announced today by S-Sgt. Verdell R. Mitchell, local Air Force recruiter.

Interested persons must be between 20 and 35 years of age, a U.S. citizen, and females must be single. Selected applicants will be commissioned in grades Second Lieutenant through Captain, depending on age, education, and experience. Further information may be obtained by calling Sgt. Mitchell at 795-3922, or visiting his office at 129 N. Marengo Ave., Pasadena.

Les Trente Amies Get Acquainted Party October 26

Although the regular meetings of Les Trente Amies are held at members' homes, the next meeting will be held at the clinic office of the Pasadena Tuberculosis Association, 111 N. Hudson Ave. The following new members will be welcomed: Mrs. Raymond Ives Jr., Mrs. Harry Langstaff, Mrs. Sidney Miller, Mrs. Richard Roberts and Mrs. E. Dale Gardener. There

ORDINANCE NO. 712
AN ORDINANCE OF THE
CITY OF SIERRA MADRE
ENACTING A NEW PART
II OF THE SIERRA MADRE
CITY CODE ESTABLISHING A RESERVE POLICE FORCE.
THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE
CITY OF SIERRA MADRE DOES ORDAIN:

SECTION 1. A new Part 2, reading as follows, is hereby created to Chapter 2 of Article II of the Sierra Madre City Code:

Part 2

RESERVE POLICE FORCE

Section 2220. Reserve Police Force, Creation of. A Reserve Police Force is hereby created.

Section 2221. Members. Said Reserve Police Force shall be a volunteer organization, composed of not to exceed 25 members, separate and distinct from the Police Department of this City. The compensation of any of the members of the Reserve Police Force shall be fixed by the City Council by Resolution.

Section 2222. Same. Appointment. The members of the Reserve Police Force shall be appointed by the Chief of Police. No person shall be deemed a member of the Reserve Police Force until he has been registered as such in a roster to be kept by the Chief of Police, and until he has taken his oath that he will observe and obey the Constitution of the United States, the Constitution of this State, and the laws of this Nation, this State and this City, and that he will carry out the duties of a member of the Reserve Police Force of this City to the best of his ability.

Section 2223. Control. The Chief of the Police Department shall have complete authority, control and command, subject to the provisions of this Part 2, over the Reserve Police Force. He shall provide for the training of candidates for membership and for the further training of members.

Section 2224. Duties. The duties of the Reserve Police Force shall be to assist the regular members of the Police Department in the enforcement of the law and maintenance of peace and order. The members of the Reserve Police Force shall be guided in the performance of their duties by the Rules and regulations to govern the Reserve Police Force to be established by the City Council by Resolution. The Chief of the Police Department may prescribe other duties than those mentioned herein to be performed by

LEGAL NOTICE

The Reserve Police Force, not inconsistent with the provisions of this Section.

Section 2225. Identification. An identification card and such other insignia or evidence of identity as may be prescribed by the rules and regulations to govern the Reserve Police Force shall be issued to each member, who must carry the card and other identification at all times while on duty, and he must surrender them upon termination of his membership.

Section 2226. Removal from Membership. Resignation. The membership of any person may be terminated by the Chief of Police at any time, and any member of the Reserve Police Force shall be his duty to notify the Chief of Police of his resignation.

Section 2227. Breaking-Entering. No member of the Reserve Police Force shall break into or otherwise forcibly enter upon any private property or enter the dwelling or habitation of another without the consent of the owner or occupant, except when immediately accompanied by a regular member of the Police or Fire Department of this city who then and there requires aid in the enforcement of the law.

Section 2228. Power of Arrest. A member of the Reserve Police Force shall have the following powers of arrest and none other:

1. He may arrest for a public offense committed in his presence;
2. He may arrest a person who in fact has committed a felony, although not in his presence;
3. When a felony in fact has been committed, he may make an arrest when he has reasonable cause for believing the person arrested to have committed it, provided, however, that the Chief of Police may make it the duty of any member of the Reserve Police Force to lend physical aid to any regular member of the Police Department in making any lawful arrest.

Section 2229. Summary Dismissal and Publication. In addition to the penalties provided by law, any violation of law under color of the performance of his duties as member of the Reserve Police Force, and any breach of the rules and regulations established by the City Council or the Chief of the Police Department shall subject any member to summary expulsion and the fact thereof may be published at the discretion of the City Council.

LEGAL NOTICE

order of the Chief of Police. Section 2230. Impersonation. Prohibited. No person shall wear, carry or display a Reserve Police Force identification card or insignia, or otherwise decalify himself to be connected with the Reserve Police Force, unless he in fact is a member thereof.

SECTION 2. The City Clerk shall certify to the adoption of this ordinance and shall cause the same to be published once in the Sierra Madre News, a weekly newspaper of general circulation, published and circulated in the City of Sierra Madre.

Passed by the City Council of the City of Sierra Madre on the 22 day of October, 1963.

Civic Center Sketches To Be Ready Soon

Revision
A revision of the Nuetzel tentative tract map 27459 creating one additional lot, making 61 in total was approved with the same conditions effecting all other lots. No plan was formed on the extension of Lotus Lane to connect the tract with Sturtevant drive. This was recommended by the Planning Commission.

Budget Revision
Since it was more apparent that the city offices were in need of desks and typewriter, the council approved the deletion from the budget a new switchboard, postage meter and tape recorder in lieu of the needed items. Attention was called by Mayor Sorensen that the purchase of this equipment should be with an "eye" upon the new civic center and with the thought that would be worthy of the new development and not that which would be sold for junk when the move was made.

Surplus Sale
Authorization was given the Police Department to have a surplus property sale on November 23 of accumulated items unclaimed. Exhibit will be at 9 a.m. and the auction held at 10 a.m.

Water Items
Authorization was given the City Administrator to bring in specifications and plans for the installation of water well number 6, and also plans and specifications for the installation and construction of the water line on Lima and Hermosa, and Adams between Grand View and Highland.

conducted a poll of Congressmen to see how they rated each other. The Democrats in Congress picked, in that poll, as the two "young men with the greatest potential" Senator John F. Kennedy and Senator Gale W. McGee.

Library Report

The Council received the report of the Library Board for its fiscal annual operation, and the Council took under advisement the appointment of a citizens committee to study the question of expansion at the library in connection with the new Civic Center. The letter, presented over the signature of George Lindsay, board chairman, said that the Library Board felt that there were some city hall facilities planned for the new center would be more suited for the Library building.

Civic Center
It was announced by City Administrator Bevington that he would meet with architects on Monday, Oct. 28 and review the first sketches of the new Civic Center Building. At this meeting other uses which must be provided for the building, such as various Scout groups, the Search and Rescue Team and etc. would be gone over.

Bevington stated that he hoped to present to the council the first tentative plans and specifications of this building to the Council at their regular meeting on November 12.

It will be remembered that the construction of the Civic Center is to be on a pay-as-we-go basis, and that it was planned that the first construction would take place sometime during the year 1964, most probably after the budget period of July 1. It is planned that the construction would be made from budgeted, planned and accumulated funds which would not necessitate any tax levy, or direct cost to the taxpayers.

P.C. Items
Planning Commission items were reviewed, with denials and approvals of the Commission accepted and hearings of three appealed variances, and one denied Conditional Use Permit was scheduled for hearings as follows: British gible for Library cards: 6,372 persons 21 and over; 1,356 from 10 to 19 years, and estimated 8 years to 9, 500, and further research shows that the local Library has a total of 5,515 registered borrowers or almost a 70 percent participation. Further the year 1962-63 showed that our library had a total circulation of 98,961, or a gain over the previous period of 8,737 or 9.68 percent.

Outstanding Library Report Made

During this period it showed that book acquisition achieved a total of 3,185 additions. These include: 2,275 in the adult fiction and non-fiction class and 910 in the Juvenile fiction and non-fiction class. While during this same period 1,078 were discarded. Total volumes on hand July 1, 1963 showed 27,048, an increase of over 2,000. 154 volumes were rebound and 146 replaced.

Further the report shows that fines were up slightly

Home, C.U.P. and Williams Variance November 26. Kintzel Variances set for hearing on November 12.

In closing the meeting the council set Tuesday, Nov. 5 to have a joint meeting with the Planning Commission. This is not a regular meeting, merely a meeting of minds, for the future planning of the community.

Suffolk Extension
On inquiry of Councilman Parks, it was stated that a Title Search was being made on the extension of Suffolk Avenue, and preparation of joining the titles with the appraisals were in progress. This business is progressing, but slowly and will soon become a major item on the agenda.

Adjournment was made to the regular meeting of November 12.

New Bridge Classes By YWCA

Intermediate Bridge — For those who have played bridge, but do not know the Goren point-count system or need review. First session will be dedicated to learning system of counting. Special problems and the playing of unique hands will be included.

Supervised play — designed for those who know the Goren system, have played a limited amount of bridge or wish to brush up on the point system of bidding. Each class will include instructions followed by playing of the Bridge hands. Individual assistance will be given.

Classes will be held on Monday morning, 9:30-11:30 and Wednesday evenings from 7-9 at the YWCA building, 310 S. First, Arcadia. Phone the YWCA office for class of your choice. Hours 10-2.

Art Club To Have Exhibit

Las Artistas, a woman's art club, will have its tenth annual exhibit in the Duncan, Vail Gallery, 637 S. Olive St., Los Angeles, Oct. 30 through Nov. 30.

Bethany

Church Notes

Three high school youth traveled to Forest Home Christian Conference Center last weekend as representatives of Bethany Church of Sierra Madre to the annual High School Leadership Conference sponsored by the center. They were Virginia Kershaw of Duarte, Bruce Guyer of Pasadena and Diantha Burnett of Sierra Madre.

Dr. Robert N. Schaper, pastor of Bethany was one of the speakers on Friday night speaking on the theme, "The Results of Leadership." Rev. Harold A. Ankeny, minister of Christian Education at the church spoke at a seminar on Saturday afternoon on "Establishing Christian Social Ethics." The group returned on Sunday afternoon.

Twelve young people and adults were baptized last Sunday evening in an impressive service at 7 p.m. Each one gave personal testimony of their commitment to the Lord Jesus Christ prior to the administration of the ordinance. Dr. Schaper officiated at the service assisted by the Chancel Choir which supplied special music.

The young adult Sunday School class called the Prospects will have their monthly fellowship party this Saturday evening, Nov. 2, at the church. The group, led by Ron McCormack of Monrovia and J. W. Moore of Sierra Madre are made up of young married couples from ages 20-30.

Rummage Sale Sponsored by Congregational

Tomorrow is the day, Oct. 25, for the opening of the big rummage sale at the Congregational Church. At 9 a.m. in Pritchard Hall the doors will open to an amazing assortment of good used clothing, furniture, rugs, toys, jewelry and housewares, at ridiculously low prices.

This is the major project of the Women's Fellowship to raise funds for the church mission. Mrs. Edward Decker, chairman, and her committee, Mrs. Herbert Siefert and Mrs. Roland Guthrie, announce the hours of the sale to be 9 to 5 on Friday and 9 to 12 on Saturday.

"Come early for the best selection of delicious home-baked goods," urges the Friendly Service chairman, Mrs. Katherine Lommet, whose group will be in charge of that table from 9 to 5 on Friday.

Mrs. Marjorie Green and her Study Group will be hostesses at the coffee table, where you may relax after your shopping tour.

Bethany Church 'Nae Sunday' 27th

Bethany Church of Sierra Madre will observe "NAE Sunday" on Oct. 27. Pastor Robert N. Schaper announces that Bethany is one of 28,000 churches throughout the nation which has been asked to affiliate churches to observe this annual event on the traditional Reformation Sunday. The National Association of Evangelicals in a Protestant organization with over two million members. For more than 20 years the association has provided a united identification, witness and outreach for millions of Bible-believing Protestants who have made it their channel for inter-church cooperation. At the 11 a.m. worship service, Dr. Schaper will preach a message on the theme "Spiritual Unity in Action."

The NAE is composed of over 40 denominations, individual churches from many other groups, and many Bible schools, colleges and seminaries, as well as missionary and evangelistic organizations. It maintains a program in a wide area of service including Christian education, world relief, Sunday school, church extension, home and foreign missions, radio, children's welfare and social action.

On Sunday, Oct. 27, at 7 p.m., the 70 minute film, "The Life of John Wesley" will be shown. This is the second in a series of significant films to be shown at the church in the fall and winter months. This 18th Century English churchman, along with his brother Charles, was instrumental in raising the spiritual level of England to the highest point in the history of this great land. In addition to becoming the founder of the Methodist Church, John Wesley lived a life which became a model for the Christian ministry for generations. This film promises to be an exciting and lasting experience attending this free showing at the church located at Baldwin and Montecito in Sierra Madre.

Faith Lutheran To Note Historical Event

Faith Lutheran Church, 845 Hastings Ranch Drive, will note the historical event and especially some of its spiritual implications as the congregation observes the Festival of the Protestant Reformation next Sunday. In the 10:30 worship service, the Rev. Armin Hesse will speak on "The Priesthood of the Christian Church," employing verses 5 and 9 of the second chapter of the First Epistle of Peter as his sermon scripture.

In accord with the Reformation Festival emphasis, the Sunday school department, meeting at 9:15, will consider the Scriptural accounts of "The Reformation of King Josiah of Judah." Parents and other adults are encouraged to attend the Adult Bible Class, con-

Announces Sun. Sermon Subject

"How To Experience More of Your Potential" is the subject of Dr. Ethel Barnhart's sermon at the Santa Anita Church of Religious Science, 226 W. Colorado Blvd., Arcadia, on October 27 at both the 9 and 11 a.m. services. In both services she will discuss how to make way for the limitless expression of God Life, Love, Wisdom and Power forever seeking outlet through every man.

The Junior Church has graded classes for pre-school children through eighth grade and is conducted at 9 o'clock every Sunday morning.

High school students meet under the leadership of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Spencer at 7:30 p.m. Sunday evenings. For spiritual help day or night call HI 7-6162, reminds Dr. Barnhart.

Weekday services include a Divine Healing meeting held every Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock and a women's group from noon to 2:30 p.m. every Thursday.

The foundation of God standeth sure, having this sea, the Lord knoweth them that are His.—2 Tim. 2:19.

Read the Small Type

As if California hasn't had enough of a problem deciding how best to utilize its water resources, comes now the ubiquitous U.S. Secretary of the Interior, Stuart Udall, telling us we should sluice a huge portion of it off to our neighbor state, Arizona.

Mr. Udall's little scheme appears in what might be called the small type of his grandiose Southwest Water Plan. The type was so small, in fact, that even California Senator Thomas Kuchel was reported to have been completely unaware of the proposal.

Mr. Udall says he would compensate Southern California for Colorado River water denied it by the recent Supreme Court decision favoring his home state. He would do this by taking more from Northern California. That's his immediate plan. His future plan calls for a further bonanza for Arizona through a complicated method of transporting still more water from northern rivers.

Far from wanting to stir up again the embroglio over the State Water Plan, we merely mention this as an illustration of an old adage we've created since the former Senator from Arizona began romping around the country evangelizing for the whole wild and wacky smorgasbord of big government ideologies: "You'd all do well to watch Udall."

More Water Trouble

California's gradiose State Water Plan, decades on the planning boards, subject of bitter legislative debate, and recipient of a $1,750,000,000 booster shot in authorized bonds by the voters, has hit yet another financial and legal snag even as construction goes on.

State Treasurer Bert Betts has urged the State Supreme Court to stop sale of old Central Valley Project revenue bonds to help finance the State Water Plan. The revenue bond gimmick was a Brown administration plan to help bail out the Water Plan which kicked up a storm of controversy in the legislature this year.

In succinct terms, Treasurer Betts, in a brief filed with the Supreme Court, states that "every conceivable reference" in the 1960 $1,750,000,000 bond issue, "pre-empted the revenues" of the State Water Plan "for the express purposes of the act." In trying to sell revenue bonds, too, Betts says the state administration now wants "to divert these revenues to the repayment of other bonds not authorized in the act."

"One of the key producers of revenues (Oroville Dam power) is to be carved out of the state water facilities by the simple expedient of constructing it with funds provided by revenue bonds issued under the Central Valley Project," Betts said.

Betts declared that it was the "clear intent" of the Legislature in passing the 1960 bond act to repeal the Central Valley Project Act enacted in the 1930's.

Betts states that this move on the part of Governor Brown's administration is breaking faith with the voters and should not be countenanced.

Joining Betts in asking the State Supreme Court to knock out the revenue bonds is the powerful Metropolitan Water District of Southern California, largest contractor for Northern California water. The MWD states that if a financial crisis exists in the State Water Plan as the state contends "it is the result of conscious, voluntary actions on the part of the state."

Complicating the Water Plan picture further is the already announced plan to capture more Northern California water by a series of new dams and viaducts, this plan to follow on the heels of the presently undertaken project.

Then, of course, Secretary of Interior Stuart Udall had to come along recently and promise that his old native State of Arizona — already in the U. S. Supreme Court battling to get a substantial part of California's Colorado River water — would get a nice supply of this new Northern California water to help its future development.

The problem is that Northern California doesn't think it has enough water even to meet its needs and to supply Southern California with as much water as it wants. Neither Northern or Southern California are likely to look with favor on Arizona getting into the act.

Our Forecast

The season of foliage, football and frost on the pumpkin also is the second-most-popular season for businessmen's forecasts. It's the time when they predict how the current year will finish up — and some of the brave ones venture a guess about the coming year. (The biggest forecast splurge comes, of course, at the year-end.)

The current consensus about 1963 is that we've had an unspectacular, steady economic course that has, overall, traveled a slightly higher and happier road than was forecast last January. At that time the post-recession upturn was viewed as middle-aged, and some prognosticators said there would be a setback, probably in the first half. But of course no real setback developed. Auto sales stayed high, heavy industry — notably steel and construction — gained speed through spring and summer, and consumers kept spending briskly in most areas.

Big question mark for the remaining 2½ months is: will Congress pass an income tax cut? Even if such an action doesn't take actual effect until 1964, the psychological impact on consumers and business could produce a spending spurt that would end the year with a solid upturn. Without such action, however, believers in the business cycle as a "natural law" may start suggesting that the long-overdue downturn might develop in 1964.

FREEDOM

At Any Price

By H. V. Witty

In "The Turning of the Tides," by Paul W. Shafer and John Howland Snow, we find the following words: "No responsible person wishes to place the school system or teacher generally, under suspicion. Yet there are those who take advantage of that very fact in order to forestall legitimate citizen investigation, and a constant citizen-supervision of the very institutions which — second only to the home and church — are responsible for the upbringing of our youth."

"In some quarters hypersensitivity to criticism converges upon a persecution complex. There are those who instantly cry 'Smear!' It is no exaggeration to say that a segment of educational officialdom has declared open warfare upon critics of the schools."

The election of Dr. Max Rafferty to the office of State Superintendent of Public Instruction represents the peoples' open declaration to stop the educational bureaucrats in our state. Dr. Rafferty tells us that an educational revolution is being witnessed in California after 30 years of experimentation with progressive education. This revolution is "exportable" and capacity audiences listening to him in other states indicate their approval of a return to the three Rs.

It is clearly evident that the people are now willing and able to accept the challenge and defeat the segment of educational officialdom which represents the advocates of "leave it to the experts" and let the taxpayer foot the bill.

Many communities throughout the state are fighting local battles in an attempt to break the chains of educational bureaucratic control. The nearby foothill community of Monrovia is a prime example of direct citizen action which successfully broke the grip of bureaucratic-type control.

In Monrovia, the parents and taxpayers found the teachers lined up with the school administration — at least on the surface. However, we find that on September 18, 1961, the then newly appointed Monrovia School Superintendent issued Superintendent's Office Bulletin No. 9. This bulletin gave the teachers a clear insight into the character and policy to be established by the new Superintendent. The content of Bulletin No. 9 was a statement by Elbert Hubbard which concluded with the words . . . "but as long as you are a part of the institution do not condemn it. If you do, the first high wind that comes along will blow you away, and probably you will never know why."

In March of 1962, the people of Monrovia soundly defeated an excessive $1.00 tax override. The educational bureaucrats then determined that simulated democratic procedure was the answer to break down taxpayer resistance. A Citizens Advisory Committee was handpicked by the "rubber stamp" school board which was then controlled by one man. This committee was allowed to pour over the figures and encouraged to compromise 18 cents. They then suggested to the school board an 82 cents override.

In April of 1963, the people again registered their opposition to the existing board by electing three new school board trustees by an overwhelming majority. In May, 1963, the people for the third time spoke out against educational bureaucracy by defeating the proposed 82 cent tax override. The usual bureaucratic threats and accusations were made because the parents and taxpayers would not accept excessive taxation. With complete knowledge that the people were demanding a stop to free wheel spending, the old school board, still holding office until July, cancelled the existing four year contract (which still had two years to run) of the Richardson - oriented Monrovia School Superintendent, and issued him a new four year contract with an accompanying $2,000 a year raise in salary. His increased salary is $21,000. This action by the "lame duck" board was taken with full knowledge that the newly elected Rafferty - oriented school board would have to work with the Richardson-oriented Superintendent.

When Dr. Rafferty was asked by this columnist to comment on this situation, the State Superintendent said: "This action is highly irregular and unethical . . . The majority of school administrators would agree with me that their services should not be forced upon the people." Rafferty continued that if teachers in general wish to be considered members of a professional group, then they must not force their labors upon unwilling citizens.

Rafferty cited as an example the fact that doctors do not force their services upon unwilling patients and concluded by stating that a local Superintendent should meet with a newly elected majority of a school board, compare his educational philosophy with theirs, and if the two do not agree, the Superintendent should then ask for enough time to obtain their position and tender his resignation.

The bureaucratic termites do not see it this way. As Paul W. Shafer and John Howland Snow tell us: "Anyone who ventures adverse comment on the schools finds he has spoken at his peril and that he has incurred the wrath of powerful, organized groups. Even elected school officials — school board members — discover they are not immune."

The battle lines have been drawn. As William Henry Harrison, 9th President of our great Republic, once said: "The people of the United States . . . May they ever remember that to preserve their liberties, they must do their own voting and their own fighting."

Educational bureaucrats be damned! It is our money they are squandering and our children they are using as guinea pigs.

BIRCH SOCIETY . . . SAYS

The Tenth Amendment is the keystone to our Bill of Rights, and it is explicit. Our Constitution could never have been adopted without this guarantee against the very usurpation of power in which the Federal Government is now engaged. The Tenth Amendment has not been repealed, and cannot be repealed by the Supreme Court, or the Executive Department, or even by the Congress — but only by the people themselves, acting through their state governments.

The COUNCIL urges every patriotic American citizen to reread the Constitution carefully for himself, and to enter into a gigantic moral crusade to insist that both the spirit and the letter of the Bill of Rights be observed by all public officials. The present course of this Administration, by substituting a government of men for a government of laws, is heading us straight for dictatorship and tyranny.

Oct. 26, 1923

On Oct. 30, a special Pacific Electric excursion train will leave Sierra Madre direct to Grauman's Egyptian Theatre in Hollywood. The program will include the motion picture, "The Covered Wagon," and a pageant, "Pioneer Days," featuring 25 Indian chiefs and 65 real "49ers." Get your ticket at Hartman's Drug Store — $1.00 and $1.65.

Another of those popular Dollar Day sales will be held Monday at J. F. Sadler's dry goods store. These events have become so popular that every month shows an increase in the variety of bargains offered.

The gay costumes, splendid music, and a fine crowd made the Woman's Club Halloween Dance one of the most successful occasions of the year. Costume prizes were awarded, with Mrs. Barbour's judged "the most original."

Letters To The Editor . . .

Dear Editor:

I would appreciate your placing the following in your newspaper: St. John's Indian School and Mission takes this means to thank your many readers for the money, food and clothing sent to the mission during 1962. A similar drive is under way for 1963-64, especially in connection with Thanksgiving and Christmas. Also, new kitchen equipment; in fact, a whole, new kitchen facility is urgently needed for the 400 Indian children and adults at the mission. Readers may contact: Brother Bernardino B. Brophy, St. John's Mission, Kona at the Village, Laveen P.O., Arizona.

Thank you for your interest in these projects.

Sincerely yours,
HAROLD WAGENHEIM.

Wynnes Enjoying Art Interests

The Bernard Wynne family, formerly of Sierra Madre, write from Lafayette, Louisiana, that Bernard has become quite busy in the art field. His latest efforts have resulted in a five-minute interview on the Ann Le Jeune television show, an exhibition of paintings at the Lafayette Museum through October, and an invitation to hold another show at the end of the month.

Since moving from Sierra Madre at the end of last June, Bernard has completed four portraits in oil, four in pastels, four water colors and drawings for publication. The Wynnes opened an art supply store soon after their arriving in Lafayette, commencing art classes for children.

The Wynnes spent numerous vacations in Lafayette with Mrs. Wynne's family, and Bernard found so many subjects to paint they decided to move there. Mr. Wynne's father, Leslie Wynne, still resides here, as does his brother, Dr. Thomas Wynne. Alfred Dewey was Bernard's early art teacher until he went into the service during World War II.

Villa Views

By
Toni Maurin
SYcamore 7-9634

I hesitate to mention this for fear of forever being hung in the gallery of the squares, but I just don't care, being square is kind of comfortable and relaxing. I'm GLAD daylight savings time is going to go off next Sunday. Glad, Glad, Glad! There, I've said it. This business of frolicking in the sun is beginning to wear just a little bit thin. I am more than eager to gather my brood around me like a mother hen in front of a warming fire, with nothing but night and darkness outside without waiting half the evening for darkness to come. Remember when you go to bed at midnight on Saturday that it is REALLY 11 p.m. and you got to bed pretty early after all!

I caught Mrs. A. E. Sandblom of Kinneloa Mesa as she was going out the door last weekend for a couple of weeks stay in Big Bear Lake. She was going up to help her daughter and son-in-law get settled in their new house. Her son-in-law, Dr. H. Duane Hoppe is practicing with Dr. Sandblom down here and in just a few months you will see both their names on a second office in the little town of Big Bear Lake.

The Kinneloa Mesa Association has long been known for their enduring friendliness, and every year for as long as I can remember they have had a family type community party. They always start out with a swimming party and this year the R. B. English pool was at their full disposal. Matter of fact, Mrs. English was chairman of the party committee. Nancy Batterson came up from college to serve as life guard for the group. Assisting Mrs. English on the arrangements were Mrs. Frank Ferris, Mrs. E. L. Rucks, and Mrs. Loren Lutz.

There were over 35 couples and at least 60 young people ranging in ages from preschoolers to college students.

Mr. Harry Pulaski spent the entire afternoon taking the kids around on his bonafide model diesel train that he has assembled and runs all over on tracks in his back yard. Mr. Neal Batterson did his bit with his rehabilitated spring band wagon drawn by a sturdy horse.

After a dinner of hamburgers, steaks, plus all the vands furnished by the hill ladies, they all danced, each to music of his choice. (I'm reluctant to say that the young people liked the fast ones, and, oh, you know the rest of the story!) Also during the evening, there were those that enjoyed movies and still others that preferred to play ping pong. At any rate, this is the sort of wholesome fun that will build memories for the young people for years to come.

and the unspoiled beauty of country quite exceeded their expectations. Matter of fact, they stayed longer than they intended originally. Their trip thru the fjords must have been a wonderful experience, with all of the mirror ponds and beautiful foliage.

Next on their list was a brief stay in Copenhagen before going on to Switzerland. In Switzerland they got the V.I.P. treatment from the time they arrived till two weeks later when they reluctantly left, George has dual citizenship, being both American and Swiss, and has a huge family in Switzerland. They were invited to stay with his aunt at the Park Hotel Reutler in Gstaad, which is the playground hotel of all of the Royalty in Europe. They went antique buying all thru the mountains and were able to send home many, many treasures from Switzerland. They returned to the United States via the Rotterdam, which is the flagship of the Holland American line, and I understand the last word in luxury and comfort.

After a brief stay in New York City, they went up to Chelsea, Vermont to visit the Sam Rushworth family. You will no doubt recall the fine young man, Mike Rushworth, that lost his life in the fire in our Sierra Madre Hills. The Rushworths were so warmly received here and were more than anxious to introduce the Wengers to their friends and neighbors, and to show them the beautiful Indian Summer they were experiencing at the time. The Wengers were also entertained by ex-governor Ray Keyser and his wife Joan. They all went jeeping over the country side absorbing the beauty and antiquing. After leaving Chelsea they went on to Burlington, Virginia, to visit some old college friends, and then on for a real antique seeking jaunt in the restored villages of Sturbridge, Mass., Shelburne, Va., the Old Mystic Seaport, and Williamsburg, Virginia.

When they got to Washington, D.C., thru the help of Mr. H. Allen Smith, and Mr. Lipscomb, they were able to get in on some special sessions, and to even hear part of the big underworld trial. George flew on home

Questions . . . United Way ... Answers

Q. Exactly how will agencies be budgeted by United Way?

A. All agencies will be budgeted fairly and equitably by volunteer committees. All allocations will be made public. If an agency operates in a single community it will be reviewed by a community budget committee. If an agency serves an entire area it will be budgeted by an area budget committee. Agencies serving more than one area will be budgeted by a county-wide budget committee.

Q. Why is United Ways allocations of funds a sensible and economical one?

A. Their plan eliminates the costly and time consuming duplication of work for all agencies county-wide. For many years 12 agencies serving the county have been required to present budget requests to 39 different committees. This procedure will be replaced by a single budget review.

Christmas Parcel Mailing Tips

In anticipation of the usual increase in mailing of parcel post packages to other countries during the holiday season, Postmaster Charles E. Louk this week offered suggestions for mailing of such Christmas gift packages, starting immediately.

"The long sea transit frequently involved in the transmission of parcels by surface means, and customs inspection and other formalities that parcels may be subjected to in the countries of destination," the postmaster said, "require that mailings be made as early as practicable to insure delivery by Christmas Day."

It is suggested that surface parcels for foreign countries be mailed not later than the following dates for the respective areas, which normally will allow time for arrival at the destination before Christmas:

Far East, Oct. 20; Africa and Near East, Nov. 1; Europe, Nov. 10, and South and Central America, Nov. 10.

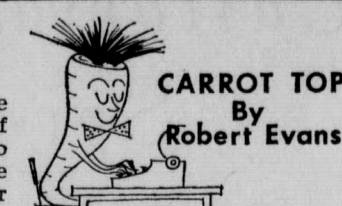

"Air service is available to practically all countries of the world," Louk continued, "but it is recommended that air mail packages be dispatched before December 10 to reach destinations before Christmas."

Mallers also are reminded by the postmaster that all parcels should be securely and substantially packed, giving consideration to the nature of the contents and climatic conditions, the length of the journey, and the numerous handlings and risks of concussions to which the parcels for foreign destinations are unavoidably subjected en route.

Most packages mailed abroad also require customs declarations and may be subject to other prohibition and regulations, the postmaster pointed out. Full information as to proper packing and technical mailing requirements may be obtained at the post office.

and Joyce went on to Chicago, and Evanston, where she visited friends, and finally to Rockford, her home town where she was lavishly entertained.

Their main observation of Europe is that of the growing economy in the free countries of Europe. Everywhere you look new buildings and industry is springing up. There will soon be a whole new face on the continent as the wave of prosperity grows!

letting him go back for a couple of weeks and look for those two valuable poles.

We are receiving tremendous applause for our Entertainment guide that has been running in the Sierra Madre News the past couple of months . . . these places are all first class establishments and highly recommended by us . . .

If you want this type of thing to continue, please mention to management, when you visit them, that you read about them in the Sierra Madre News . . . this is dining and entertainment at its best and for your pleasure.

We will soon have a new Sierra Madre Police Reserve . . . this may go up to 25 men and it will certainly be a needed addition to our city . . . not that we are in bad as far as criminal work is needed, but the ground to be covered by a limited force is tremendous, and the Reserves can take over many traffic jobs, and emergencies that will release the regular force for more concentration on pressing problems in the city.

The addition of the new (used) fire equipment is certainly a great relief to our already overloaded and antiquated equipment . . . although it does throw our new truck fund a year later, I think it was one of the wisest moves that could be made by the department and the City Council. We will be nicely covered until the new truck comes around, and after that we will be setting on top of the world with Fire Fighting Equipment, this together with our efficient crew should have some bearing on lower fire insurance rates . . . we stole a truck that had we not taken it another city had offered $3,700 for it and we stole it for $2,300. What a dealing bunch we have . . . congratulations.

In closing this week this should be the order of the day . . . "always save a little, you never know when a bargain is going to arrive, and you can use your savings to make a nice deal." See you around town, I hope, I hope, I hope.

Answers to key questions about the investor-owned electric utility industry and the all-electric future

Did you know you probably "own" part of the electric utility industry? Nearly everyone in the United States has a stake in the future of the investor-owned electric utility industry. It's a fact! If you have a bank account, carry insurance, belong to a "fund" or any organization with money to manage, you are probably an indirect owner—since all these types of institutions are investors in electric utility company securities.

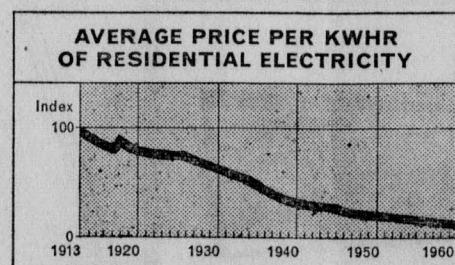

How about the direct owners? There are some four million direct owners of America's business-managed electric utility industry: men and women who have invested their savings in companies such as Southern California Edison. More than 100,000 people like you and your neighbors are investors who directly own Southern California Edison. No wonder Edison service is perpetually polished and perfected. The boss is all around us!

INVESTORS IN THE ELECTRIC UTILITY INDUSTRY
DIRECT INVESTORS
Shareholders	4 million
Bondholders	Number unknown
INDIRECT INVESTORS
Life Insurance Policyholders	130 million
Mutual Savings
Bank Depositors	22.5 million
Members, Shareholders, Policyholders in Charitable, Fraternal, Religious, Educational Organizations and Foundations	Total number unknown

This table shows the ownership of America's electric utility industry. It's a picture of power widely owned and well-managed for the benefit of almost everyone.

What effect has investor-ownership had on the cost of electricity for you and your family?

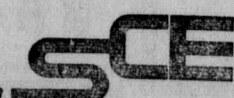

Despite rising costs and rising prices everywhere else you look, the cost of the average kilowatt-hour of electricity to the residential consumer in America has gone steadily down (see chart below).

One big reason for this: the business-managed companies are constantly protecting the interests of their customers (who are also their owners) by increasing efficiencies to make electricity one of our age's biggest values.

Here in Central and Southern California, the record has been outstanding. The average cost of a kilowatt-hour of electricity to Edison residential customers is 26% lower today than it was in 1939.

Chairman, quality control

Meet the most important person in our lives: A customer. As an investor-owned, business managed company, all Southern California Edison plans and all Edison people have the one big objective: Customer satisfaction. We move ahead only as we serve and please our customers. Happily for us (and for our 120,000 stockholders) electric living grows and grows in popularity. People say nice things about the quality of our service. And Edison electricity continues to be today's biggest bargain! You have an important stake in the electric utility industry. ## Seven Girls In Court

Tournament of Roses In Search For 75th Queen

A search began this week for the Queen of the 75th Tournament of Roses, according to an announcement made today by Hilles M. Bedell, Association president.

Nearly 2,500 coeds of Pasadena City College participated in the first judging sessions held all day Monday and Tuesday in the women's physical education classes. Their participation was voluntary. All women students were given the opportunity to vie for the honor of presiding over the floral fete except those who are married and those not maintaining satisfactory scholastic requirements. The preliminary judging at the school was done by faculty members, PTA representatives, school leaders and Tournament members.

Throughout all screening sessions, the contestants are identified by numbers only. Names and addresses are known only when the final seven girls for the Court are chosen. This procedure is carefully followed to assure selections being made strictly on merit.

Every effort is made to select seven girls to serve on the Court who have charm, poise and grace, as well as beauty, and those who have good speaking ability. Neither race or religion are considered in choosing a group of typical college girls possessing wholesome beauty to represent the Tournament.

The Tournament of Roses provides three complete wardrobes for the Queen and Princesses for all appearances. Neither the girls or their parents are called upon to assume any expenses whatsoever. The Association's queen and court committee of eight members and chairmaned by A. Lewis Shingler has charge of all judging sessions and is responsible for the selection of the royal representatives of the Tournament.

On Thursday, Oct. 24, 250 girls will appear at Harbison Hall at PCC for further judging.

Mass Schedule For St. Rita's

The feast of Christ the King will be celebrated by Catholics of the world on next Sunday, Oct. 27. After the annual summer vacation period, the adult choir of St. Rita's Church, 300 N. Baldwin Ave., Sierra Madre, will resume singing the weekly High Mass each Sunday. Mr. Robert Carroll of Arcadia has had the choir in rehearsal since early September, and announces that the mass selected for this feast will be Roger Wagner's "Mass in Honor of St. Francis," with "Cor Jesu" (Schultes) being used as the offertory hymn, and "Holy God" as the recessional.

Sunday Mass schedules remain the same—7, 8, 9:30, 11 a.m. and 12:15 p.m., except that the 9:30 a.m. Mass will be High Mass. The others are Low Masses.

Members of the choir preparing for Sunday's feast include Mmes. Eugene Malone, Milton Morningstar, Jules Ruggles, Robert Carroll, Edward Voelck, John A. Moe, Richard Armstrong, Gerald Blackman, Louis Schweiner, Morris Larson, Hugh McLean; the Misses Terry Hubik, Terry Lovejoy, Catherine McGarry, Noel Hubik and Terry Kelly; Messrs. Fred Zapata, David Duran, Fred Hawes, Virgil Archambault, John L. Bigley, George Haynes, John M. Bentley, James W. Fisher, Louis Venegoni and Donald Warfel.

Mr. Charles Waters is the organist.

Dear Editor:
The following is an open letter to Mr. Bernard C. Yunk:

November 21, 1963

Mr. Bernard C. Yunk
1315 N. Michillinda Ave.
Pasadena, Calif.

Assuming that the news item in the Sierra Madre News of October 12, 1963, quotes you correctly in your report to Mr. John Curtis, President of The Sierra Madre Chamber of Commerce, to appoint some one "whose integrity would not be questioned" I hasten to assure you that at no time was your "integrity" in question.

The report of the Water Rates Committee of the Chamber of Commerce would have been very properly received from a committee of "APARTMENT HOUSE OWNERS" or similar designation. The subject of water rates was given a hearing before the City Council and then only were the Water Rates established. At this late date we can only accept the report as submitted and review with the background of the Public Hearing.

I regret very much that you have taken umbrage as indicated in the NEWS item.

Cub Scout Pack 390 View Film

At Cub Scout Pack 390's first meeting Mr. Charles Zern, area representative, and Mr. Carl Bischoff, retiring institutional representative, spoke to a group of Cub Scout parents, Friday, Oct. 11, in the Sierra Mesa cafeteria.

Mr. Zern brought the film "The Boy From Hickory Street" which explains the Cub Scout program, and was assisted by Craig Dittmar, Boy Scout Troop 384.

New Cubs registered were Kevin Elliott, Michael and Terrance Flanagan, Jimmie Griffin, Steven Jensen, David Jones, David Lavigne, Denis Paquette, Richard Resh, Ronald Rook, Frank Schaefer III, Michael Scharf, Melvyn Serrano, Paul Norman Teem and Robert Velasquez.

Returning Cubs must register before the end of October, as the Pack charter is due at that time. Those parents whose boys intend to continue in the pack should contact Rowena Wingate or Tom VanAchthoven.

The next pack meeting will be Friday, November 1, at 7:30 p.m. in the Sierra Mesa cafeteria. Boys interested in joining Cub Scout, accompanied by their parents, are welcome at all pack meetings.

A Series for Your Information

Tax Facts Concerning Los Angeles County As Expressed by Dr. Felix J. Weil Series

Assessor's New Countywide Reappraisal System

Part VI
As I explained last week, the assessor uses a "sales ratio" study to check up on the ratio of assessed to market values. However, the sales ratio is not, by itself, proof of the general assessment ratio.

For two reasons: The countywide assessment ratio must include property other than real estate whereas the sales ratio does not.

And real property sales do not necessarily contribute a true cross-section of all to-ally assessable real property, as the turn-over rates vary greatly according to type of properties.

But as a key to finding those areas "most seriously out of line" the sales ratio method is quite reliable, provided the adequateness of sales incidence is considered.

Suppose of 600 parcels in one map book area 120 were sold last year. Their sales prices will permit conclusions about the 600 parcels' market value more justifiably than if there were only 30 sales.

Sales prices are influenced by so many accidental factors that a relatively small group's sales ratio may not be very meaningful for the general assessment ratio in the area.

"Dispersion" of sales must also be considered. If most of the 120 sales I mentioned cluster tightly around, say a ratio of 23 per cent, they are much more indicative than if they show wide discrepancies fluctuating, say from 11 to 65 per cent, although their average may also come out at 23 per cent.

It will take over a year—probably three or four—to review the whole county by the sales ratio method and to achieve the same 25 per cent assessment ratio for all properties. Until this general procedure is ended the 25 per cent general ratio will be applied "within the limits of reasonable tolerances," Watson says.

This, judging from the tolerance zone used by the state board of equalization, would probably mean a spread of four percentage points below 25 per cent (that is, 21 to 29).

But these tolerances will be reduced from year to year until the ratio is everywhere on the 25 per cent level or as close to it as can be hoped for in a system of mass appraisals.

Reforms instituted by Assessor Watson will also include some other changes:

Harter WCTU Meeting on Oct. 31

The Harter Woman's Christian Temperance Union will meet at 2 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 31, at the home of Mrs. Lillian Stilson, 657 W. Grand View.

Mrs. Dora Wagner, president of the Alhambra WCTU, will be speaking on the State Convention recently held at El Centro.

The building slip conversion and the merger of the two divisions will not only end duplication of paperwork, unavoidable as long as two divisions dealt with the same real estate from different angles. Buildings will also be reclassified by types of architecture, materials used, quality of construction, number of stories, etc., all to be expressed in a code symbol.

Such a symbol consists of a letter, a number between 1 and 10, and another letter. The first letter refers to the type of construction: masonry, steel, concrete, wood frame, etc. The number indicates quality of construction.

Its spread of ten categories is taken from the FHA regulations; 1 is the cheapest type of construction, 10 the best. The average FHA-approved home is usually in category 5.

The last letter refers to shape: whether the building is square, rectangular, irregular, etc. In general, the more intricate the shape—that is, the more corners to be built—the more expensive the construction.

A wood frame house of better than average quality and rectangular shape would thus have the code symbol D 6 B.

The result of this classification is to be a formula with two variables—prevailing construction cost per square foot and depreciation percentage to be deducted.

To find the RCLND the computer would do this calculation:
Suppose we have a D 6 B building of 2,000 square feet; its normal depreciation time is 25 years, that is, four per cent per year; it was ready for occupancy an last year's lien day (first Monday in March); last year's prevailing cost factor for this type of house was $14.56 per square foot.

(For valuation purposes the actual cost is irrelevant. A "Mrs. Blanding," changing her mind several times, may run the cost up to $22. And a do-it-yourselfer may get away with $10.)

Thus its RCLND last year was $29,120—2,000 times $14.56, less zero depreciation—and this was taken as its market value.

(Some market factor affecting the building only would have caused its market value to be set at a higher or lower figure, but for simplification we assume there was no such factor.)

The building's assessed valuation thus was 25 per cent of this market value, that is, $7,280.

This year—the second—if nothing changed, the computer would repeat the calculation, except that one

CHILDBIRTH In the GOOD OLD DAYS

Few families would care to go back to "the good old days" of childbirth. Death of mothers was common place, often because doctors had no drugs adequate for fighting infection. In 1915 one of every 164 mothers died in childbirth, or from complications of her pregnancy.

Many of these mothers could have been saved by only a few dollars' worth of today's medicines.

Now only one mother in 3,125 dies. Much of the credit for this improvement is due to the new prescription drugs. Their cost is surprisingly low. In fact, only 15 prescriptions in a thousand cost as much as $10. The average one costs only $3.26. No wonder we say: "Today's prescription is the biggest bargain in history."

Letters to the Editor . . .

I may not believe in what the man says, but I will defend to my death his right to say it.—(similar words of Voltaire)

Dear Editor:

It gives me pleasure to address this letter to a newspaper that steadfastly defends the Constitution of the United States of America, what it stands for and our way of life against the Communists—enemies of our country—who continually seize upon every possible opportunity to work our destruction and weaken us nationally, internationally—morally, physically and spiritually.

The most appalling spectacle of surrender of a moral principle that we should defend to our death is, in my opinion, that of allowing Communist speakers the privilege of spewing their venom to our own university students in our own state-owned universities that should, by every element of reason, be the last and final citadels of free speech to surrender to our avowed enemies.

If the schools of our land—most assuredly the public schools—are not dedicated to the fullest possible protection of our ideals, our ways of life, our Constitution, our country, then the time has come when the patriotic people of the nation should rise as a body and overhaul our education.

So they call it free speech and education that Communist speakers such as Dorothy Healy should address our students on the subject, "Why I Am a Communist," which she recently did at UCLA. Is there anyone so naive and blind that he can believe students listening to such speakers will hear the truth? The defense of such practice is that students can think for themselves, should hear both sides. How absurd! The sum-total result of such speeches must inevitably be acceptance of the belief by a questionable number that Communism does have some "good" points, that true Americanism has some grave sins. And that is their endeavor—a weakening in every way possible of our moral and spiritual resolution to defend our nation.

And, more than that, from the ranks of the young who may already have had their moral and patriotic fiber weakened, recruits for the venomous philosophy of Communism may be enlisted. There can be no denying the fact that such speeches gain and win points for our enemies. And all this because those who should protect us willingly surrender our treasured strongholds of freedom to our enemy. How to protect us from this sell-out of Americanism? Speak up, to those in authority, that they may truly hear the real voice of patriotic Americans.

Your . . . Community . . . Hospital

As a citizen of Sierra Madre what do you expect when you come to the hospital for surgery? Assuming your doctor has advised you that a condition exists and will require immediate attention, the natural reaction is to become excited, worried, maybe even depressed, fear of the unknown.

The minute you walk through our doors you begin to wonder if our reaction to you is "good afternoon Mr. Appendix, here is your number, sign this pile of papers and we will get things ready." Once you pass the admitting desk a lady with a white dress comes up to you and sometimes they put you in a wheelchair and down the hallway you go. You are given a ridiculous looking gown to put on and then to bed. You still aren't sure what will happen next are you?

In the next few hours someone comes in your room, smiles, and says "open your mouth." Then she holds your hand for a little bit and counts while looking at her watch. Suddenly, in comes another smiling individual and says "hi!" She starts getting out her needle and syringe, then jabs you in the arm and starts withdrawing your blood. About this time, the nurse walks in with a couple of pills, needles and syringe and tells you to take these. No sense in asking her why—all she says is "Doctor's Orders."

The only thing you are sure of at this point is that maybe you should have waited another year or so before you decided on having your operation. But, by this time, with the shots and all, you might as well see what happens next. Sure enough, in walks this nurse again, wakes you up and says "here is your sleeping pill!"

Now that you have been exposed, stuck with a needle several times, taken all sorts of pills, and who know what else this is your day for surgery. The shot they gave you has made you feel silly and drowsy. The girls from the operating room come in from the stretcher and down the hallway you go looking at the ceiling. This is when you suddenly realize that the doctor was serious about the operation.

Into surgery you go and this is the corker! Here stands someone, you can't tell exactly who it is because all you can see is the eyes, they're looking right at you. They strap you down and the eyes above your head look upside down at you.

Soon you're asleep and the next thing you know you're back in your room and someone says "hi honey, how ya feel?" Only this time it's not the girl in white, it's your wife or husband.

Well, the next few days will vary, depending upon the type of operation you had. There is one more problem, "getting out." This is the only part of the whole procedure where things might get messy. THE BILL!! Fortunately, you have insurance and that's no problem. Oh, you don't have any insurance! It expired last month! O.K. you mail us a check! Oh, you don't have a checking account! You have been out of work for three months—Well, what can you pay? NOTHING!! I guess we will just have to put the appendix, that was badly infected, back where we got it until you get some money. Sorry!

Employees of the Sierra Madre Community Hospital have joined together in an all out effort to advise you whenever possible and to make your stay a comfortable one. If you have complaints about someone or something we would appreciate knowing about them

Plan Gala Opening Of New Shop

An art exhibit, workshop demonstrations and an evening of varied entertainment are being planned by the Creative Arts Group for the opening of "La Tienda," its new shop at 35 E. Montecito St., in Sierra Madre. To provide funds for scholarships, art works by CAG instructors will be offered for sale, and proceeds will be used to make it possible for many to participate in the various workshops.

The Grand Opening Friday evening, Oct. 25, at 8 o'clock will feature a "hooray" by the teen guitar and folk-singing group led by Roberta Goldberg. Later a quartet of advanced recorder players will perform under the direction of Gloria Ramsey, founder of the Creative Arts Group recorder workshop. Dr. Howard Barrows, Mrs. Elsie Sandefur, Miss Marianne Koolman and Dr. Richard Harelik will perform a short varied program. The evening will close with folk singing led by Marlen Rabirol, director of the advanced guitar workshop at the Creative

Arts Group.

On Saturday, Oct. 26, at an Open House from 1 until 5, visitors to "La Tienda" will see demonstrations of throwing clay on the wheel, decoration techniques of enamel on copper, and silk screen printing.

Included in the art show will be the work of the following who have been instructors during the three years since the founding of this non-profit organization: Howard Whalen, Lee Wexler, Lannea Melzian, Jane Morse, Mary Wallace, Jiray Zorthian, Curtis Tann, Joan Hill, Joe Carmichael and Norma Chuan. Work by these artists will be available through "La Tienda" on Monday through Friday from 10 to 2 o'clock. In addition, there will be a students' corner. Such one-of-a-kind items as watercolors, oils, drawings, sculpture, ceramics, jewelry, gift-wrapping accessories and novelties will be offered for sale.

Holy Angels School Dinner Dance Completed For Nov. 2 Enjoyment

The CPTA of Holy Angels School in Arcadia is making final plans for its "Crystals and Chrysanthemums" dinner dance Nov. 2, according to Mrs. LeRoy Patnou, chairman.

The dance will be held Nov. 2 in the clubhouse of the Los Angeles Turf Club for the benefit of the school clinic and athletic program.

The party will begin at 7 with a social hour when newcomers will have the opportunity to get acquainted and oldtimers to renew their friendships. At 8 a delicious roast beef dinner will be served.

Then from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. the George Poole orchestra will provide a well-rounded selection of danceable rhythms — ranging from the waltz to the bossanova.

Mrs. Patnou's co-chairman is Mrs. Paul C. Byrne Jr. Other members of the committee are Mrs. James Daley, general assistant; Mrs. Frank Corrigan, in charge of reservations; Mrs. Thomas Costantino, program; Mrs. James Cozza, decorations; Mrs. Robert Kohorst; Mrs. James Lyons, publicity; and Mrs. Frank Regan, accommodations.

Serving as hostesses are Mrs. Elgerie Capranica, Mrs. Edward Clark, Mrs. Alfonso Coenen, Mrs. Joseph Frey, Mrs. Ray Klauer, Mrs. Arthur Lombardi, Mrs. Bernard McCarthy, Mrs. Norus Ryan, Mrs. Louis Simon, Mrs. Olvin Singer, and Mrs. William Tagmyer.

Others who have assisted are Mrs. Louis Aurilemmo, Mrs. Louis Bartolo, Mrs. Don Buchmeyer, Mrs. Philip Capobianco, Mrs. Robert Curry, Mrs. Leonard Hansen, Mrs. Herbert Hendrie, Mrs. Sydney Larkin, Mrs. Edmund Loeffler, Mrs. S. L. Milian, Mrs. James Montpas, Mrs. George Pink, Mrs. Gerald Reinig, Mrs. Robert Reising, Mrs. Joseph Rue, Mrs. Walter Rybaczyk, Mrs. Donald Schulz, Mrs. Walter Slavin, Mrs. Roman Snow, and Mrs. John Valliquette.

Ticket information and reservations may be obtained from Mrs. Frank Corrigan, 447-6337 or Mrs. LeRoy Patnou, 446-1208.

"Honolulu Woman Was Ashamed of Her Figure"

Here you see Mrs. Jessie Thompson with Pat Walker, the national figure authority. Mrs. Thompson is wearing a size 20 dress and weighs 189 pounds. For years she had all kinds of figure problems and was convinced it was glandular or hereditary.

As told by Jessie Thompson, Honolulu, Hawaii.

My name is Jessie Thompson. I live at 3838 Pahoa Avenue, Honolulu. I am married and I have 2 fine sons; ages 20 and 23. For years I have been plagued with all kinds of frustrations and I did not realize until recently that most of them were the direct result of being frustrated and unhappy because of how I looked in a mirror. For years I read in magazines about Stauffer System and wished that there was one here in Honolulu. I can't explain the joy I felt when I read about Pat Walker arriving from the Mainland and saw her picture where she was photographed getting off a plane and read that she was here because of the opening of her new Salon. Then when I saw Miss Walker on T.V. and read about the wonderful things that were happening to the ladies in the Salon, I called and made an appointment and went into the Salon to see them. Until going in I really did not believe that there was professional help for people like me. For years I had listened to my friends, who like myself had all kinds of weight problems, and I had convinced myself that it was either my glands or it ran in my family, and that I was destined to be always live with myself the way I was. My sons appreciate a pretty figure and I can't tell you what it means when they look at me now and rave over what's happening to "their mom." It finds the solution to my many problems that I have had for years.

Here you see Mrs. Thompson, after only 9½ weeks, she has gone from a size 20 down to a size 18 and still going down. She has reduced 28½ pounds a total of 49 inches. And her sons rave over what is happening to their mom.

feels so good to get up in the morning and look at the scales in the bathroom and not be afraid to get on them. It's a lot of fun to think about walking on the beach here at Waikiki and not wear the loose muu-muus that I have pretended to enjoy wearing for all these years. I am going to wait until I am a size 14 before I get a bathing suit and I will tell the world I'll love wearing it. Miss Walker was photographed with me in the salon and I felt like a real celebrity with all the people watching us. It is really the only time in many years that I did not cringe when they pointed a camera at me. Probably what has happened to me is the same as any other woman who has found happiness and a new way of thinking, and a new outlook on life as a result of finding her figure again. I only wish that it had happened to me many years ago, because I feel that I have missed so much in life as a result of dreading to go to parties because I felt ashamed of the way I looked, and dreading to stand up before a club group to speak because I felt that they were looking at my figure faults and not listening to what I was saying, and I feel that my mental outlook did not make my life with my husband and sons as happy as it could have been and will be in the future. In other words, I am glad that I mustered up enough courage to go and talk to Miss Walker at the Salon and at me now and rave over what's happening to "their mom." It finds the solution to my many problems that I have had for years.

Shakespeare Jrs. Turn Into Spooks For Halloween

Pumpkins with burning eyes and fiery grins will lead the way to the newly decorated Terrace Room of the Altadena Town and Country Club when the Shakespeare Club Juniors gather on Oct. 26 at 8:30 p.m. for a Halloween Party.

Mrs. Alfred S. Wach, entertainment chairman, and Mrs. William Miller, sports chairman, have chosen decorations of cornstaks, skeletons and pumpkins to enliven the evening's festivities. The Halloween mood will be enhanced by light and shadows from hurricane lamps on each table.

Dancing and refreshments will be provided for the costumed revelers.

Among the many spirits and spooks making their presence known will be Messrs. and Mrs. Claude R. Hickman, William Hanford, Arthur M. Ashby, Gene W. Archer, Arthur Little, Robert L. Ratliff, Delord B. McGee, Robert F. Hayes, Richard Kennerknecht, John M. Riker, Arthur R. Miller, James T. Coleman, Theodore A. Fielding and Dr. and Mrs. Benjamin G. Cox Jr.

the state and in the communities they serve," adding they had been in the forefront of the "battle for freedom of the press for the people of California, the nation, and the world."

He also praised all presidents of the CNPA, past and present, for guiding the group "successfully along a path of increasing membership and increasing public service through member newspapers, proving the 1963 National Newspaper Week theme that 'Newspapers Make a Big Difference in People's Lives.'"

Each Week A Celebration By Senior Citizens

The Sierra Madre Senior Citizens' club met Saturday, Oct. 19 at the Park House. Mrs. Maybell Barker brought her delicious date nut bread as a treat. Each Saturday some member brings cakes, cookies or candy, so each week is like a birthday celebration.

Mrs. Stella Church returned after a lengthy illness. On Oct. 26 Mr. Walter Fader will show his beautiful colored slides of the Hawaiian Islands.

Observance Area For Santa Anita Workouts Tripled

The public observation area for the free morning workouts at Santa Anita is being expanded to almost three times its former size, in advance of the 1963-1964 winter racing season which begins Thursday, Dec. 26.

The workouts over the Santa Anita main track each morning have become so popular that additional facilities were required. They are conducted every day including Sunday, weather permitting, from about 8 to 10 a.m., and will commence in mid-December.

The space for observing the workouts is being enlarged both laterally along the rail at the west end of the grandstand, and is also being given greater depth for ease of movement by on-lookers.

Table seating space will continue to be provided near the rail and adjacent to a Continental Breakfast bar. Horses, riders and trainers will be identified over a public address system. Families with children are particularly welcome, and many youngsters are brought to see the horses at close range.

Something Fishy . . .
Something mighty fishy about Joe Don Looney's dismissal from the Oklahoma Sooners grid squad. The full story probably will never be known.

Looney was the ideal, typical All-American boy two years ago when he was in Pasadena with the Cameron Aggies. The wire service story last week stated that Joe Don didn't like to play defense. Yet Looney's defensive work against the Bakersfield eleven probably saved the 28-20 victory for the Aggies.

THINGS TO CONSIDER . . .
Could be a "father" problem, a la Pappa Knox, since Don Looney Sr. is a former grid star from TCU . . . The seemingly far-fetched idea that Looney is the "fall guy" for the Sooners' miserable showing against Texas may not be so way out. A confidential source in Oklahoma wrote this corner that the whole thing was expected long ago, that Looney is strictly a bad actor. So, take your choice . . .

LOONEY is the first junior college transfer ever to play at OU. Unfortunately for many other fine two-year players, he may be the last. QUOTABLE QUOTE . . . "I was hanged three times since we lost 3-0 to LSU. That must be some sort of a record." Andy Gustafson, Miami University head coach.

ANOTHER ONE . . . "The main trouble I have as coach at Caltech Institute is that of communication with my players. They are a lot smarter than I am." Bert LaBrucherie, Beaver coach. Incidentally, the Beavers won their first two games this year, a total that usually adds up to two years work. Bert claims his boys were fighting overconfidence all week before the Pomona tiff. Tongue in cheek, Bert?

RAY ELIOT, athletic director and former head coach at Illinois University, will be the feature speaker at the Pasadena Quarter-back meeting this week. He really inspired the crew two years ago.

JR. ROSE BOWL TICKET OFFICE opened Monday at Vorman's Dept. Store in Pasadena. Pick 'em up early for good seats.

ON THE NATIONAL BASKETBALL SITUATION . . . Look for the Baltimore Bullets to be vastly improved over their showing as the Chicago Zephyrs. Billy McGill should come to life and team with Terry Dischinger and Ralph Bellamy. Did you know the NBA season has started already?

Old Hankus didn't set the world on fire with last week's selections, but it could have been worse. Fourteen wins and six losses brings the season's total to 65-5-30. The best that can be said for the peerless prognosticator is that he picks the nation's toughest 20 games.

THIS WEEK'S GASSERS. HARBOR to prove rude host for Pasadena CC . . . Old Hankus tabbed the Lancers the last two weeks and lost by scores of 26-0 and 39-8. The local crew is shattered by injuries and Harbor isn't a bad club.

PASADENA HIGH will roll along unbeaten trail by dumping Glendale Hoover, 21-6. The Bulldogs manage to win even with key men in the pits. Standby for about 20,000 customers in the Rose Bowl when the Canines and Mustangs tangle on Nov. 15.

MUIR will have their hands full with a tough Crescenta Valley eleven but Mustangs have a full corral and should win it by maybe two TD's.

U.S.C. over California, make it 30 to 14. Men of Troy looked like National champs last week, but Bears are starting to growl and Morton can throw.

ILLINOIS to slip past UCLA, but we have a hunch a grand upset could be in the making.

ARMY over Washington State by 10 points. SYRACUSE to dump a tough Oregon State eleven but this also could go the other way.

OREGON to upset Washington 17-14.

NOTRE DAME over Stanford, make it 22-14.

L.S.U. to eek out win over Florida.

GEORGIA to squeek out three point victory over Kentucky.

MISSOURI to shut out Iowa State 14-0.

PURDUE to nip Iowa in a

Civic Officials Tour PLGS Storage Fields

Quantities of gas which will be withdrawn this winter from the underground storage field of Pacific Lighting Gas Supply Co. in the hills north of Montebello not only would be sufficient to take care of the entire fuel requirements of a city the size of Minneapolis, but they help to maintain the price of gas at levels that make it a household bargain.

Such were the keynotes presented to civic officials from San Gabriel Valley communities who Wednesday toured the P.L.G.S. storage field and received a first-hand progress report on the underground storage reservoir.

In addition to the operations of the storage facilities, the visitors were shown landscaping put in by the gas company to beautify the site, and elaborate sound-proofing equipment used to hold down the noise level at the storage field.

The storage reservoir, civic officials were told, plays two important roles in the supply of natural gas to more than 2.7 million homes, commercial and industrial establishments in southern California.

First of all, after gas is injected during summer months of relatively light usage, it is withdrawn during the winter when gas consumption — particularly for home heating — is at its highest.

Secondly, in helping equalize the sendout of gas from summer to winter, the field permits the gas companies to maintain at maximum efficiency their transmission pipelines which carry gas from out of state, and it enables the gas companies to purchase gas supplies at the most economical contract prices.

Civic officials were told that the storage reservoir is nothing more than an oil and gas field which has been produced down to depletion. In the storage operation, gas is injected back into nature's formations at pressures never exceeding those originally existing.

Among local officials who took the tour were James F. Abernethy and Boyd Smith.
